Endangered

An evening with Tim Flach
at his studio

Friday, 20 April 2018

Animal photographer Tim Flach will be presenting images from Endangered, a project that was realised over a period of two years to document animals on the edge of extinction - some iconic, some lesser-known. He is also questioning the way we communicate through animal representation, to better connect people to the natural world.

Time 6:30 for 7:00pm (light refreshment will be served)
